

Jeff Greenwald Book Reading and Signing

2 – 3pm, Monday, Nov. 14

Library Fishbowl (Room 209)

Jeff Greenwald, best-selling author of Mr. Raja's Neighborhood: Letters from Nepal, Shopping for Buddhas, Future Perfect: How Star Trek Conquered Planet Earth, and Snake Lake, will read from his books, followed by a Q & A & a book signing.

Mr. Greenwald has written stories and essays for such publications as The New York Times Magazine, Wired, National Geographic Adventure, Outside, and Salon.com. His travel writing appears in numerous anthologies, such as The Kindness of Strangers, In Search of Adventure, Salon Wanderlust, and in many volumes of the award-winning Travelers Tales series. As part of HSU's International Education Week, Mr. Greenwald will present his one-man show, "Strange Travel Suggestions", in which audience members spin the wheel to choose themes for his presentation on Tuesday, Nov. 15, 7 – 8:30pm in Kate Buchanan Room.

Persons requesting disability accommodations should contact Kumi Watanabe-Schock at 826-5656 or e-mail Kumi.Watanabe-Schock@humboldt.edu