A statue named "Rite of the Crane" by Bruno Groth, noted Humboldt County artist, is now being cast at the Eureka Boiler Works foundry. The bronze statue will be installed in Fresno as a portion of their new mall development. The piece is six feet tall and will join works by artists from Washington and France.