

Preserving Family Heirlooms & Treasures

A Presentation by Edith Butler
Humboldt State University Library
Special Collections Assistant

Friday, December 4, 1998
Nordstrom Lobby
Humboldt State University Library
7:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Edith Butler, Special Collections Assistant, will present practical information about preserving family collections of photographs, paper documents, and audio tapes. Having recently attended the Rochester Institute of Technology summer institute, Preserving Photographs in a Digital World, Ms. Butler will share an expertise crucial to preservation in today's society. Come join us for an evening devoted to preservation awareness. Bring your questions and concerns as together we learn both traditional preservation techniques as well as the possibilities of digital imaging.

Free admittance to Friends of Humboldt State University Library, HSU faculty, staff and students.

$5.00 donation requested from all others.
