The Jack Miranda home has a lovely setting. Metropolitan has been a haven for those seeking a peaceful and serene environment.

Metropolitan's history dates back to 1858 when the first settlers arrived. The inn was originally known as the "Miranda Inn," named after the first family to settle in the area. The inn has been a popular destination for visitors and locals alike, offering a charming and welcoming atmosphere.

The inn is surrounded by stunning natural beauty, with the Eel River flowing nearby. Visitors can enjoy fishing, hiking, and bird watching in the area.

The inn offers a variety of accommodations, including both guest rooms and cottages. Each room is tastefully decorated and offers all the modern amenities for a comfortable stay.

The inn is also known for its delicious meals, which are prepared using locally sourced ingredients. The menu features a mix of traditional and contemporary dishes, offering something for every palate.

Overall, Metropolitan is a wonderful destination for those looking to escape the hustle and bustle of city life and enjoy a peaceful retreat in the heart of Humboldt's outdoors.
