WHO — WHAT — WHERE

Lt. Bill Arvola ('38-'39) is at the Abadan Air Base, Iran, as forecaster with the 19th Weather Squadron. This is on the vital route to CBI.

Pfc. George Baker (Fall '42) still in France, recently got a pass and took a 13-hour bumpy GI truck ride to Brussels where he saw a show, ate good food, and stayed at the "11 November Club." More important: he saw a redwood display and a redwood trunk which had been at the Panama Exposition and later was presented to Belgium!

Lt. Thomas Baker ('42) in a German Prison Camp at Barth on the Baltic Sea, writes of being indoors . . . the winter hasn't been exactly a California one!

Sgt. Tom Bartlett ('42-'43) came out of his mud bath in France long enough to write us a two-page letter. He is with the 39th Infantry, APO 447. Another G.I. Bill man, we hope.

Maj. John Bauriedel ('33-'37) deserves congratulations for his promotion in early February. He has seen T/S Ronald Acheson ('39-'41) and Lt. Clare Quinn ('36-'37) in the Pacific.

Pfc. Bob Bell (Fall '42) is with the Marine Officers Training Unit at Quantico, Virginia, and will receive his commission in a few weeks.

Cadet Nurse Patricia Black ('41-'42) is at Oak Knoll Navy Hospital for her last six months of training. Aside from general treatment, Oak Knoll specializes in plastic and neuro-surgery.

Ensign Chas. William Blakeley Jr. ('32-'33) completed his course in Officers' Training School at Harvard last October. At present he's aboard a naval vessel as accountant and personnel officer.

Cpl. Ed Burgess ('40-'42) is operating a radio 24 hours a day in Germany . . . and sharing a room with a family of mice.

Ph M 3/c Clyde Richard Coffey ('42-'43) is now working in a dispensary with 25 other corpsmen—driving ambulances over muddy roads and through heavy traffic. Richard met Cpl. Len Longholm ('38-'42) and on liberty one afternoon together they "painted the town."

M. Sgt. Stan Colwell ('35-'40) is now in the 161st Liaison Sqdn., Elsau Field, Alexandria, La.

Capt. Preston Connick Jr. ('37-'39) was home in February after serving 12 months in the China-Burma-India theatre as a pilot of cargo planes for ATC over the "hump" from India to China. He was one of three California men to clear the Air Transport Command's Miami Air Field following a long flight to Miami aboard a giant ATC transport plane. Connick brought home to the U.S. a plane load of seriously-wounded from India, making the 14,000-mile trip in 66 hours actual flying time. He has to his credit 475 operational hours in a total of 96 missions over the hump, and a total of 350 non-operational hours.

C. M. 2/c Jack Craig (Fall '40) in the 38th Naval Construction Battalion, Pacific, has a moment now and then to dream of returning to college to finish his course.

H. A. 2/c Nancy Crane is intensely busy on "ologies" at the National Naval Medical Center, Bethesda, Md.

Sgt. Hobart Davis ('40-'42) received the Purple Heart in December and is back in active combat with Co. C, 71st Infantry (APO N.Y.).

T/Sgt. Charles Davis ('38-'39) with the 14th Air force in China, has seen Ledo MatteoI ('39-'42) and is eagerly looking for other Humboldters. His APO is 210.

award a unit can be given, the Presidential citation for "conspicuous gallantry in action for the period December 23 through December 28, 1944."

Sgt. Grant Ferguson ('39-'43) went to France in March. It was a two-meals-a-day voyage! His APO: 445.

Lt. Henry Frank ('41-'42) is now at Las Vegas, Nevada, for gunnery in B-29's at Central Fire Control. His address: Box K-51, Sqd. K, S.V.A.A.F., Las Vegas.

Cpl. Charles Glover Jr. (Fall '42) has been abroad 18 months in which time he's had one 7-day furlough. Charles repairs airplanes in an Air Depot Overhaul in England. Not much time for sight-seeing.

S/Sgt. Del Goodyear ('41-'42) serving in the infantry in Germany got tangled with some shrapnel, was in the hospital briefly, and is now back in what he calls the routine again. His APO is 451.

Sp (A) Charles Goret ('40-'43) is at Camp Decatur Bldg 92, San Diego 33, California.

Sgt. Chan Hadley ('32-'33) had to use an old box as a desk while writing us from the Philippines recently. Chan finds his work in the Intelligence Department very stimulating.

Capt. Louis Hibser ('38-'40) traveled over 20,000 miles in less than 3 months. Now in Italy, his duties deal with transportation and evacuation of the sick and wounded.

T/Sgt. Haven Howatt ('30-'32, '38-'41) finds his work in the Intelligence and Operations Section of his battalion very interesting. His APO is 230, N.Y.

S/K 3/c E. V. Jeffers. Humboldt’s well-known music director, has left Hawaii and is headed toward the Southwest Pacific.

Sgt. Francis Kane ('40-'41) is with the ATC in the East Indies. Francis is pretty sure he wants to cash in on the GI Bill when he returns. He and his wife, the former Patricia Bertrand ('40-'41) announced the birth of a daughter in April, Portland, Oregon.

CAMPUS NEWS

President Gist will be heard by short-wave broadcast from the local broadcasting station in the near future. This will be a message to Humboldt’s men all over the world . . . and like weather predictions we cannot say what the date will be.

Announcement has been made of a bequest of $5000 to Humboldt State College by the late Alfred Pitz of Eureka. Under the provisions of his will the money is to be invested by the members of the Humboldt Improvement Association, and the proceeds used for the establishment and maintenance of scholarships.

Humboldt State contributed about $400 in the recent RED CROSS DRIVE in Humboldt County. Students had an attractive booth in the corner where usually stands the Winged Victory.

The Spring Play, “YOU CAN’T TAKE IT WITH YOU,” directed by Mrs. Karshner, will be given at the college three nights during the first week in May. Old fans will be glad to know that John has consented to do Grandpa!

Lt. Wilbur Jensen ('41-'42) sent Humboldt State a lock of his hair as “the symbol everlastings”! He wants to go to the CBI theater but may be sent most anywhere.

Pvt. Mel Johnson (Fall ’42) was reported missing in action in Belgium in January.

Cpl. Jay Jones ('32-'38) sent a Spanish wedding announcement of his marriage on March 24 to Sra. Irma Trejos Araya in San Jose, Costa Rica.

Pfc. Wayne Kelton ('29-'35) has had some experience with a military government unit in Germany.

Cpl. Leslie Larson ('41-'42) returned to Humboldt on furlough this month from Port Edward, B.C. Les has no pet gripes, he says, except the eternal rain and the highly seasoned food prepared by Chinese cooks at his post.

UNIFORMS HERE FROM WORLD OVER

Cpl. Rod Belcher (37-42) arrived here from Kingman, Arizona, on the afternoon of March 9 just in time for the 2 o'clock Shakespeare class. Later Rod delighted his friends by playing basketball at the gym, along with Ensigns Jack Piersall, Merritt Neale, Jimmie Roscoe (all 41-43) and Charsly Sweet (40-43). These "stars" were here the same week and their basketball playing brought much admiration from Humboldt’s women! We might say, for the benefit of Belcher's intimates, he still does his imitations for select audiences.

Cpl. Rachael Bengston (41-43) gave us a surprise visit in March. She returned to the WAC Department, Ft. Myer, Va.

Capt. Al Canepa (36-40) flew in from France on April 9! Al has been in the army four years, having served on several fronts—Tunisia and Southern France as well as the western front. He has five battle stars. In the same breath, Lt. Frank Crichton (39-41), who was wounded on Luzon January 13, dropped in the office. Frank was flown to Hamilton Field and is still under hospitalization at DeWitt General Hospital, Auburn, California. He served with an infantry cannon company and was overseas more than a year. He had been wounded once before but had returned to combat duty within a short time.

Sgt Bill Granich (41-43) called on us March 12; he’s back to sea duty. Pvt. Wallace Elliott (42-43) was here on March 15. Wallace is now at Indiantown Gap Replacement Center, Pa., to be shipped out soon.

Capt. Herb Inskip (33-38) flew in to San Diego from Cairo and from there headed north with his wife and daughter—arriving at Humboldt, February 18. Inskip flew the circle route to New Foundland, thence to Washington, D. C., and San Diego. The trip through the length of California took longer than the hop from Cairo to Washington! He returned to his post in Egypt early in March.

A S Elvin Jackson (42-43) visited the staff on February 27, and later left for N.C.T.C., Camp Endicott, Davisville, R. I.

Lt. Richie Jarboe (35-41) flew west from Columbus Air Field, Mississippi, and surprised us on March 24. Richie has a new job as education officer and informant . . . we visualize him with blackboard, maps and chalk in hand.

Cpl. Wally Look (38-42) stationed at windy, blowy, cold Pasco, Washington, must have found warmth in Humboldt's fog when he came here on March 14 . . . we saw him at Listening Hour, and he looked wonderful!

S. Sgt. John Latham (Fall 42) is at the Central Instructors’ School, Class 245, Laredo, Texas. John picked up an injured leg while in combat . . . he returned from England in December.

Lt. Jack Lima (39-41) is back in the states following an Italian "bombing cruise." His address: S. O. G. A. A. F. P. S., San Antonio, Texas.

Sgt. Robert Linton (40-42) crossed the channel on New Year's Eve and started 1945 in Belgium where he is in the Engineers' Supply Section. His APO is 228.

Ensign W. L. MacPherson (42-43) contacted Bob Oliveira and Don Karshner on his way to a Pacific post.

Lt. Herb McCain (41-42) is a primary flight instructor at the Naval Air Station, Peru, Indiana. Flying students are "really a headache" sometimes, says Herb! He saw Dean Galloway (41-42) in New Orleans some time ago. Dean is now engaged in making plane rescues in the Pacific . . . daring feats, we hear.

A M 2 / c Art McCormack (Spring '40) has spent 38 months in the Pacific ranging in area from the Aleutians to Australia. He has seen seven Naval battles. Art’s wife and baby are in Fallon, Nevada.

Pfc. Clyde McCutcheon (41-42) is recuperating in a hospital

FACULTY NEWS

Dr. R. H. Fisher, research specialist in the Russian section of the State Department in Washington, won the Henry Baxter Adams Prize for his historical work, "Russian Far Trade, 1440-1700." Announcement of this much-coveted honor was made this winter by the American Historical Association.

Dr. Harry D. MacGinitie, lieutenant in the Army Air Corps for two years, is receiving his discharge and is expected to reach Arcata from his post at Hobbs Field, New Mexico, within a few days. Mac will take up his duties in the science department at Humboldt in the fall.

George Murphy, who was released from the Army last spring, recently passed the written and oral exams for the doctor’s degree at Stanford’s School of Education. Murf plans to return to Humboldt early in June to be a part of the faculty family again.

in the Hawaiian Islands, from wounds received at Iwo Jima.

Sgt. Angelo Manfreda (39-42) writes of war-torn France and of his visit to Eiffel Tower and Notre Dame in Paris. He’s in Germany now — APO 554.

Pfc. Austin Mattila (38-41) sent an aloha from Hawaii . . . says he met Lt. Herbert A. Hudson (40-41) on the street in Honolulu.

T/S Alan Maurer (39-41) has been stationed in Sydney, Brisbane, New Guinea, the Netherlands East Indies, and now the Philippines.

Pvt. Mark Melendy (43-44) writes from Ft. Meyers, Florida that B-29 gunnery isn’t ordinary, flexible gunnery, and it’s harder than Mr. Telonicher’s classes in physiology!

Sgt. David Mitchell (41-42) is serving with the 15th A.A.F. in Italy. He’s a radar specialist.

Lt. Loy Montgomery (39-42) is still able to write cheerful letters from a hospital ward in Hawaii. Monty lost his left arm just above the elbow while in battle at Iwo. Ethel French Mont (Continued on Page 4)
FRANNY MOORE MARRIES

Jean Ogelsby Bogess of Eureka and Lt. (jg) Franny Moore ('31-'39) were married March 8 in the First Presbyterian Church at Lake Forrest, Illinois. Franny enlisted in the Navy in March 1942 and served in the South Pacific for a year and a half. The newlyweds are now at Lake Forrest which is near the Naval station.

...gometry ('41-'42), his wife, is at Highland Hospital, Oakland. Her address: 1401 East 31st St., Oakland 2, California.

Capt. Jackie Morton ('39-'41), pilot and division leader attached to a Marine scout bombing squadron, was awarded a gold star in lieu of a second air medal, according to word received here in February. Capt. Morton, now on duty at Bogue Field, N. C., received the citation in recognition for his outstanding work in bombing enemy installations in the South Pacific against heavy anti-aircraft fire.

Ensign E. V. Mullins ('36-'38) is passing out ammunition to armed guard crews aboard merchant vessels... no glamour, he says, just hard work. Address: Hawkins Point, Naval Magazine, Baltimore, Md.

Cpl. Maurice Naggjar ('39-'42) has left the cold north and "gone Hollywood." His address: 410th AAF Base Unit, Box 2831, Hollywood 28, Calif.

Lt. Harold Narron (Fall '42) is in Italy and is hoping to see Gene Thomas (Fall '42). Harold's APO is 252.

Pfc. Bob Oliveira ('41-'42) is "big contact man" in Hawaii. He has recently visited with Monty Montgomery, Nebbie Roscoe and Willie MacPherson.

Lt. Clare Quinn ('36-'37) is not sorry he was sent in the direction of New Guinea. In spite of adverse conditions, he found jungle food and things intriguing... papaya, breadfruit, coconuts, wild passion fruit. The most recent thrill was Clare's bailing out of a P-38 at 200 feet and landing 20 feet from the burning plane while ammunition was being fired all 'round the countryside.

Capt. Rudy Renfer ('32-'33), chaplain in the Third Army, writes us from a hospital in Wales that he was seriously wounded while in Belgium in February. Rudy has been serving for some time in a hospital division with the 87th Infantry.

S/Sgt. Lloyd Sanard ('39-'40) sewed on the fifth overseas stripe this winter, after completing more than 30 months duty with the veteran truck carrier group of the 12th Air Force. Lloyd is a radio operator with a group that flies ammunition, food, and personnel to the front lines, and evacuates the wounded. For distinguished service in the CBI theater, this group was awarded the War Department Unit Citation. This same group has a record of outstanding performance in several invasions.

Pfc. Peter Schmitt ('39-'42) returned last month to the Sedalia Army Air Field, Warrensburg, Mo., following a 30-day course at the School for Personnel Services, Washington & Lee University, Lexington, Va.

Darold Schottig ('37-'38) is attached to MacArthur's general headquarters in the Philippines. The Staff wants his address!

Lt. Wayne Simpson ('29-'35) has a new address: L.S.M. Training Alloc, ATB Building 104, Little Creek, Virginia. Wish we knew more about Wayne.

Ensign Fred Slack ('40-'42) has been all over the Pacific as Supply and Disbursing Officer on a ship. His "extra-curricular" duties seem to be those of voting officer, insurance and war bond man.

Sgt. Gene Smith ('29-'30) when last heard from was near Manila, staying in the home of a native where he and his buddies learned to roast a sucking pig.

Lt. (jg) Lyle Thomsen ('33-'35) is one of the physicians at the Naval Receiving Barracks at Shcmeaker, California.

Pfc. Richard Tinney ('38-'43) recently broke into a Hun's desk, found some old inflation marks and sent them to us. Tink says he's well in spite of the master race, although he saw a root blow off a horse gall-house and

REUNION IN FRANCE

Reunion in San Francisco... Reunion in Hawaii... Reunion in France! Three weeks ago, two Humboldters in a battered jeep drove into a citadel near Dijon, France, to meet Lt. G. B. Wilson, Humboldt's former speech and drama man. Together they rounded up a fourth Humboldt for a day's reunion. Lt. Wilson, Major Blaine Boyce (not HSC), Bill Barber (Fall '32) and Bill Morgan ('35-'37) were those present to gossip, reminisce, and become nostalgic for Humboldt.

Reunion in Berlin??... Reunion in Tokyo??

land much too close to him and his buddies! He calls it routine stuff. (??)

Sgt. Robert Turner ('35-'36), somewhere in the European theatre, is in charge of a Commanding Officers' staff boat.

Lt. John Vogel ('34-'36) and his English wife have a daughter, Barbara Ann, born in London on Feb. 15, 1945. Their home address: 137 Godley Road, London, S. W. 18.

Lt. Sherman Washburn ('36-'40) is somewhere in Italy where he has seen Pompeii and numerous cathedrals. The San Carlo Opera House had been booked for a solid week when Sherm tried to get tickets for a show. His APO is 781-R.

Pfc. Kenneth Williams (Fall '42) has been awarded the Purple Heart for serious wounds received on February 6 while in hard fighting. He is being hospitalized in England.

Cpl. Joseph Womack ('42-'43) is somewhere in Assam, India. His APO is 629.

Sgt. Willard Woodcock ('37-'39) was killed in a plane crash in the New Guinea area, according to word from the War Department early in March. Woody was serving as an airplane mechanic with the Army Air Forces. His ever-cheerful, interesting letters will be greatly missed by the Staff, and Woody's warm personality can never be replaced in the hearts of his many friends. Janet Woodcock Rizzo ('32-'36) is a sister, and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Woodcock of Eureka.
