Joshua Beatty is Senior Assistant Librarian at SUNY Plattsburgh, where he serves as a reference and instruction librarian and manages the college's institutional repository and publishing platform, Digital Commons at SUNY Plattsburgh. He earned an MLIS from the University of Pittsburgh in 2010 and a Ph.D in American history from the College of William and Mary in 2014, with a dissertation titled "The Fatal Year: Slavery, Violence, and the Stamp Act of 1765."

Joshua has written and presented on diverse topics within librarianship and history, including institutional repositories, bibliographic management software, information literacy standards, and the career of a Jacobite spy in colonial America. He is currently revising an article on the continuing relevance of the Brazilian revolutionary educator Paulo Freire to modern academic libraries as well as researching the influence of American foreign policy and the book publishing industry on the creation of the Library of Congress's "Naval Science" classification.

Campus Open Forum:
10:00 am -10:50 am, Library 114

Dillon Wackerman is the Head of the Center for Digital Scholarship at Stephen F. Austin State University, where he is actively involved in the development and management of SFA ScholarWorks, the University’s institutional repository (IR). He received a BA in Classics from San Francisco State University and an MLIS from San Jose State University. Dillon’s recent research and work have focused on the library as publisher, the relationship between non-traditional research formats and online publishing and also the promotion and development of IRs.

Campus Open Forum:
10:00 am -10:50 am, Library 114

Since 2010, Kyle Morgan has been an archivist at ONE Archives at the USC Libraries where he specializes in archival processing, references services, outreach, and digital initiatives. Kyle started his archiving career at the Institutional Archives Department at the Getty Research Institute in 2008. Kyle holds a Master of Library and Information Science from UCLA.

Campus Open Forum:
10:00 am -10:50 am, Library Fishbowl (Lib 209)
Sara Lee holds an MLISc from the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa, and has worked most recently as the Digital Repository Librarian at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa Library. Previously, she was a public librarian in British Columbia, responsible for areas ranging from website development to teen services. Sara also holds a bachelor's degree in computer engineering from the University of California, Santa Cruz and a JD from the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa.

Campus Open Forum:
10:00 am -10:50 am, Library Fishbowl (Lib 209)