Students

Librarians can help you with:

- In-person and online research help - send us an email!
- Online tutorials and research guides
- Ethically using sources, avoiding plagiarism, citing, and citation management tools and strategies
- Developing your research strategy, focusing your topic, finding sources, evaluating information from a variety of perspectives, and more

Faculty & Instructors

Librarians can help you with:

- Integrating information literacy into your curriculum with workshops and online tools
- Selecting and purchasing library resources
- Finding OER to use in your classes and connecting your students with databases, primary sources, and unique materials from our special collections
- Partnering on grants, research projects, and more

Email librarians directly, visit us at the Research Help Desk, or use our 24/7 chat. We're here to help!
